

Demetris Taverna

WALKING into Demetris Taverna, diners will find a corner of Greece transported to Weston.

The friendly and welcoming staff help to create an ambience reminiscent of the first class restaurants in Greece.

Food has a very special place in the hearts of Greek people and only the very finest ingredients are traditionally prepared and cooked to ensure a mouth watering meal you are guaranteed to remember. Enjoy a vast selection of superb Greek food, cooked as it should be over real charcoal in an original Greek taverna.

Greek specialities include beef cooked with cinnamon, bayleaves, garlic, tomatoes, mushrooms, brandy and cream and fillet or loin of pork marinated in olive oil and lemon juice grilled over a charcoal fire.

Specialising in fish and steak dishes, diners will also find an extensive selection of dishes including sword fish, kalamari, tiger prawns and Dover sole.

A very popular choice is the Meze. It's a great way to sample a wide variety of dishes and the most popular Greek and Cypriot specialties as diners are served more than 20 different dishes in various stages. Imagine a table overflowing with dishes each with its own unique flavour and people lazily picking whatever they fancy.

A special occasion can become more momentous in this superb restaurant located in Richmond Street. The taverna specialises in group bookings and works closely with customers to prepare a menu according to your requirements and budget.

With seating for up to 70, the taverna can host your party and provide music, belly dancing, entertainment or live bands.
