

SMITHSHOTEL

BAR AND RESTAURANT

SMITHS Hotel occupies a prime position on Weston seafront and boasts a Victorian themed patio which enjoys panoramic views across Weston Bay.

The family-run hotel is a popular choice for residents, businesspeople and tourists.

Smiths Hotel has its own entertainment lounge called the Pier View Lounge where customers enjoy live shows from many top acts.

Alternatively, if you prefer to relax and enjoy a traditional cream tea in the afternoon or a quiet drink in the evening then you can sit in the Waterfront Bar Lounge and enjoy the lovely views over the bay and Brean Down.

The Waterfront Bar is fully licensed and centrally located to serve both lounges and restaurants along with the outside patio.

A wide variety of draught and bottled beers, spirits and fine wines are served throughout the day.

Diners enjoy a full a la carte menu in the enchanting Tree House Restaurant which serves daily specials, day and night.

Alternatively, customers can choose to dine under the shade of a parasol on the Victorian themed patio.

There is a brand new menu for the 2008 season, offering mouthwatering choices from around the world.

BarZaar

LOCATED in a great spot on Weston's seafront, BarZaar has a superb menu with something to suit everyone.

Along with Nick's Bar next door, BarZaar forms part of the Mentone Hotel complex.

A contemporary-style bar and restaurant, the menu has been created with exotic new flavours.

Starters include traditional favourites such as prawn cocktail, breaded mushrooms, loaded potato skins, chicken goujons, barbecue ribs and king prawn skewers. If you fancy a taste of Greece you could try pitta bread with tsatsiki and Greek salad garnish.

If you want something light, there are plenty of salads, including warm ones, to choose from.

The extensive menu of main dishes includes Greek favourites such as kleftico - slow cooked lamb on the bone - spicy shefalia meatballs, kebabs and moussaka.

There is also a wide range of burgers and wraps to choose from, along with traditional roasts, steaks, seafood dishes and vegetarian options such as creamy vegetable kiev, vegetable lasagne and nut roast.

Speciality dishes include Chicago Chicken - chargrilled chicken breast topped with smoked bacon, melted cheese and barbecue sauce - and Hawaii 5-0 - chicken topped with ham, pineapple and melted cheese.

If that's not enough to tempt you, there's old favourites such as cottage pie, lasagne, chilli con-carne and chicken curry as well as a specials board which changes regularly and an extensive 'light bite' menu.
